New England Writers' Centre

catastrophe, recovery, poetry with John Charles Ryan

Poet, Author, Artist, Naturalist

In this intensive two hour online workshop, explore how we deal with pandemics, lock-down, bushfires & climate change.

Delve into how poetry can help us to address the challenges and concerns of the present and how poets from other eras dealt with the catastrophes of their times.

Whether you're a practicing poet who's looking to deepen your craft, or new to poetry and feeling a need to explore, this workshop is for you!

When: Saturday 31 October 2020, 2.00pm - 4.00pm

Where: Online, via Zoom

Cost: $50 members | $65 non-members
